

INTRODUCTION TO THE CRIMINOLOGY

The conditions for completing the course

- Condition for completing the course: Attendance at the seminars and the preparation and presentation of a 10-minute PowerPoint presentation in English, including proper citation of sources and references to the literature used. Presentation topics will be agreed upon with the teacher during the seminars on 23 and 30 September 2026.
- Seminar schedule: In-person seminars will take place on Wednesdays from 17:15 to 18:40 in classroom n. 12. The seminars will begin on 23 September 2026.
- Schedule of next seminars:
 - ✓ 30. IX. 2026 – Introduction to the Criminology
 - ✓ 7. X. 2026 – Criminal Phenomenology
 - ✓ 14. X. 2026 – Violent Death of Another Person... Will it always be a murder?
 - ✓ 21. X. 2026 – Child Sexual Abuse as a Current Social-Pathological and Criminal-Law Problem
 - ✓ 28. X. 2026 – Selected Criminological and Criminal-Law Aspects of Stalking
 - ✓ 4. XI. 2026 – Sexual Crime in Slovakia: General Overview
 - ✓ 11. XI. 2026 – Economic Crime in Slovakia
 - ✓ 18. XI. 2026 – Presentation of Your Topics
 - ✓ 25. XI. 2026 – Presentation of Your Topics
 - ✓ 2. XII. 2026 – Presentation of Your Topics
 - ✓ 9. XII. 2026 – Presentation of Your Topics
- Literature: The textbook Introduction to Criminology will be uploaded in PDF format to Moodle. For Erasmus students, it will be sent to their university email addresses. The teacher's presentations will also be available on Moodle; for Erasmus students, they will be sent by the teacher via email.

Please also make use of the wide range of English-language books available in our faculty library, particularly when preparing your presentations. You are also welcome to use other reliable and high-quality online sources.

available exclusively on Moodle
due to my Erasmus Mobility